

Why Isn't the ebook You Want Available for Checkout from the Highland Park Public Library?

You may have noticed that while My Media Mall offers you older books from some of your favorite authors, many of their newest titles are not available. In fact, some authors can't be found in My Media Mall at all. There are several reasons why:

? While the Library would very much like to offer these and other titles to you, publishers' policies are preventing us from doing so.

? Unlike consumers, the Library cannot purchase ebooks from Amazon or Barnes & Noble and then lend them out to a third party.

? Libraries can buy a print book from publishers and lend it out, but digital content is being treated differently by publishers and the companies who manage digital content licensing.

? Five of the seven largest publishing houses DO NOT sell their ebooks to libraries. The only two that sell to libraries do so with restrictions or exorbitant prices.
