Chloe and the Lion

Author:

Mac Barnett

Illustrator:

Adam Rex

Grades K-3

A truly original, silly, funny, and downright cool picture book about a girl named Chloe, a loose-change finder who ends up lost in the woods after a dizzyingly long merry-go-round ride... where she meets a huge lion. (The lion is really a dragon, not a lion. Illustrator Adam Rex has been fired for replacing the lion with a "cooler" dragon. Sorry. The remainder of the book will be handled by a true illustrator who can follow directions. Apologies for this interruption.)

So Chloe, in the woods, suddenly comes upon a li-

(Sorry again. The new illustrator seems to have drawn a lion who has eaten the author of the book.)

-on, who lets out a ferocious roar.

(You know what? That roar didn't look very ferocious... how about a scarier lion?)

And so on, and so forth.
