

July 19 2012

Woody Guthrie Centennial

July 14th 2012 marked Woody Guthrie's 100th Birthday. Woody Guthrie wrote songs that became not only the sound-track of an era, but permanent fixtures of our American Identity. Guthrie's more than 3,000 songs covering countless subjects and appealing to all ages represented the pulse of hard-hit people in times of economic depression and war.

Music

The Live Wire

Daddy-O Daddy!

Dust Bowl Ballads

Nursery Days

Library of Congress Recordings

Columbia River Collection

This Land Is your Land

Classic Railroad Songs

Film

Woody Guthrie: Ain't Got No Home

Bound for Glory

Riding the Rails

The Panic Is on

American Roots Music

Woody
Guthrie-Froggie
Went A-Courtin'

audio and image from the Internet
Archive

AV Blog Entry Type:

AV Blog

Music Blog Tags:

Folk

Source URL: <http://hplibrary.org/av/woody-guthrie-centennial>