

January 11 2011

Cloaked in Red

Author:

Vivian Vande Velde

Reading Level: Grades 6 - 8

"Why would her parents send a young girl alone through a woods that was obviously infested with wolves?" This is one of the questions Vivian Vande Velde asked herself before writing these eight entertaining retellings of the Red Riding Hood tale from various viewpoints and with many surprising twists.

If you enjoyed this collection of offbeat retellings try: The Rumpelstiltskin Problem also by Vivian Vande Velde The Fairy's Mistake by Gail Carson Levine and The Frog Princess E.D. Baker

Check availability of this book.

Other books by Vivian Vande Velde

YS Book Level:

6th Grade

7th Grade

8th Grade

YS Locations:

JY Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SJS

YS Genres:

Fantasy

Short Stories

Source URL: <http://hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/cloaked?page=25>