

Resources for Reading Groups

web resources for book clubs

Use links on this page to help you select books for your discussion group.

Novelist Plus

(You must be a Highland Park cardholder and log-in to use this service). Use this readers' advisory tool to find a good book by topic, authors similar to your favorites, and book discussion guides.

FictionL Booklists

Book lists by theme, subject, writing style, and more. Compiled by librarians.

Book Muse.com

Suggested books, notes, discussions for book groups.

Love to Read. Finding Books and Book Clubs

Internet Public Library pathfinder and links to books and book clubs.

Reading Group Guides

Reading group guides, discussion, questions, advice and ideas.

Reading Group Choices

Book discussion suggestions, discussion questions, and discussion board.

Random House Reading Group Guides

Publisher's book club suggestions and guides.

Hachette Book Group Reading Group Guides

Reading group guides from Warner Books and Little, Brown & Company.

HarperCollins Reading Group site

Publisher's book club suggestions and guides.

Simon & Schuster Reading Group site
Publisher's book club suggestions and guides.

LitLovers
Book club ideas, activities, suggestions, and book reviews.

BookBrowse
Book reviews from readers and critics, book excerpts, reading group guides.

need further assistance?

Talk to a readers' advisor if you:

- need book discussion suggestions
- have a good title to suggest for one of our book club kits
- know your book group selections for upcoming months and would like assistance obtaining copies

Readers' Advisors can be contacted at (847) 432-0216 ext. 105, or email at hppla@hplibrary.org.
Subject : Readers' Advisors

Source URL: <http://hplibrary.org/readinggroups>