

March 16 2011

The Boy Who Howled

Author:

Timothy Power

Reading Level: Grades 4 - 6

Callum's father keeps looking at him like he wants to eat him, literally eat him. This isn't all that odd, since his father is a wolf and Callum is a soft furless salty-tasting definitely not wolf pup. Unfortunately he is also approaching adolescence which means that he MIGHT want to make a challenge for the Alpha or Beta male position, so to protect him his mother brings him a school uniform and leaves him at the edge of the woods so that he can go live with his own kind. This fun book is full of misunderstandings and coincidences and will appeal to anyone who enjoys fantastic realism novels like Hoot by Carl Hiaasen.

Check availability of this book

More books by Timothy Power

YS Book Level:

4th Grade

5th Grade

6th Grade

YS Locations:

J Fiction

YS Reviewers:

SH

YS Genres:

Adventure

Animals--Talking

Fantasy

Humor

Misfits

Relationships

School

---

Source URL: <http://hplibrary.org/kids/reviews/boywhohowled?page=20>