REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT
President Basofin’s report included the following:
- He welcomed two new student representatives, Zander Bush and Kyle Slavin.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Ms. Conway’s report included the following:
- The Youth Services mural artist has been contacted about the upcoming remodel project.
- Lake Forest Library is going fine free in February. Two more libraries are joining the CCS catalog consortium which will result in lower costs for all members.
- Ms. Conway commended Doris Lorr, library accountant, for a seamless transition to Paylocity at the end of the year while simultaneously dealing with year-end reports and auditors.
- Design boards for the remodel are on display in the lobby. A supplemental handout which refers to the website is also on display.
- Ms. Conway distributed hard copies of the remodel flyer and a draft copy of a new Naming Opportunities brochure. The Community Outreach and Development Committee will meet on January 30, 2020 to review the brochure. She encouraged Board members to review and provide feedback prior to the meeting.
Sarah Cohn, Development Associate, will be departing the library on January 31, 2020.
Ms. Conway introduced Jeff Wecker, Security Monitor for the Library. Ms. Siegel recognized him with a certificate and gift card for 15 years of service.
The Operations and Policies Committee met earlier this evening to review draft revised policies that address new 2020 laws. The drafts will be in the February Board packet for approval.
